12th STREET TAVERN ANNOUNCES NEW GENERAL MANAGER

Albuquerque, NM (Aug. 4, 2022) — Indian Pueblos Marketing, Inc. (IPMI) today announced that Anthony Galindo is the general manager of the new 12th Street Tavern, located in the heart of Albuquerque on 12th Street, just north of I-40, in the thriving Avanyu Plaza.

Galindo has been an Albuquerque resident since 1984 and is a graduate of La Cueva High School. He served four years in the U.S. Air Force. He started working in a brew pub 20 years ago and became passionate for the hospitality industry, working as general manager for The Library Bar & Grill in Albuquerque and as GM for the Pueblo Country Club in Pueblo, Colo.

“We’re excited to have Anthony lead the 12th Street Tavern team,” said Paul Koll, IPMI’s Director of Restaurant Operations. “His experience in both casual and fine dining gives him a unique perspective of the industry – and his knowledge and enthusiasm are ideal for what we have in mind for Albuquerque’s newest neighborhood eatery.”

The 12th Street Tavern is a place where friends and flavors meet and features reimagined, American comfort food that’s designed to be craveable and shareable, along with classic cocktails and an extensive beer list that includes local craft brews. The eatery is 4,500 square feet and in total seats 170 people both indoors and on its expansive, pet-friendly patio. It also has a walk-up, takeout window for patrons on the go who want to enjoy the restaurant’s American food classics at home or on the job. The restaurant is open from noon – 9 p.m. Tuesday – Sunday.
