Albuquerque, NM, Dec. 23, 2022 — The Indian Pueblo Cultural Center (IPCC) is happy to announce the winners of its annual Pueblo Gingerbread House Contest. Voting for the public, the People’s Choice Award, continues through Jan. 6 at 4 p.m.

“From renditions of Chaco Canyon to Pueblo churches, well-known landmarks, and private homes, we were awed by all the amazing submissions we’ve received this year,” said IPCC Guest Experience Director Michael Lucero. “We want to thank this year’s participants for their hard work. This contest allows us to celebrate the season with an age-old tradition of creating a gingerbread house while also continuing to educate and showcase the Pueblo culture through architecture and Pueblo life.”

Pueblo Santa was the honorary, VIP judge for the event. Winners received cash prizes ranging from $50 to $500.
