Native American Youth Art Show Artist Circle Gallery

This annual exhibition was established in 1979 to encourage creativity among Native youth, and to help them recognize that the future preservation and evolution of Native culture lies with them. This year, entries focus on personal 'superheroes' – the place, people, or things that help them see the beauty in the world. Free for members, or with museum admission.

Saturday, November 5
Indigenous Connections and Collections Library Blog

View online: bit.ly/IPCC-Library
This month's blog includes a guest post from the Bessie Coleman Aerospace Legacy. Learn about Bessie Coleman (Cherokee), the first African American and Native American licensed pilot, and the celebration of her 100-year legacy, as well as other Native American women aerospace pioneers.

Tuesday, November 8, 2-4PM
Pueblo Book Club: "American Indians in World War I: At War and at Home" by Thomas A. Britten (1998)
Moderated by IPCC Museum Cultural Educator, Jon Ghahate (Laguna/Zuni)

Pottery Room or Virtual
View online: bit.ly/PuebloBookClubNovember2022
Thomas A. Britten's book is a well-researched project, exploring documents and recorded accounts of Native Americans and their contributions at home and abroad in the world's first Great War. These are stories of Native men and women during this time before being granted U.S. citizenship.

Friday, November 11, 9:30AM-12:30PM
Veterans Day
IPCC Courtyard
Join the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center as we dedicate this day to honor those who have served our country. We will start the day off with the posting of colors by Acoma Pueblo Legion Post #116, followed by the National Anthem by Gwen Sandoval (San Felipe, former Miss Indian New Mexico). We will have a cultural dance from the Oak Canyon Dance Group (Jemez) as well as 24 Native artisans in our Courtyard. Complimentary Pueblo cookies and coffee will be available for veterans starting at 9:30AM.

Pueblo Gingerbread House Contest
Entry forms/official rules available online: November 12
Submission Dates: November 25-December 18
In-Person Lobby Display Dates:

November 25-January 6, 2023
Judging with Pueblo Santa: December 20
The Pueblo Gingerbread House Contest is a favorite holiday tradition at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center. Children and adults are invited to enter a Gingerbread house inspired by a Pueblo village, house, community church or historic building, with prizes awarded in children's and adult categories. This festive event is a unique way to share and enjoy Pueblo culture with your family. Free for members, or with museum admission.

Saturday, November 26
View Into The Collection

View online: bit.ly/IPCC-collections
Join Amy Johnson, Curator of Collections, for an in-depth look at artwork and cultural items from the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center's Permanent Collection. As 2022 nears an end, and the holiday season is upon us, you may find inspiration to bring out your holiday ornaments. The Christmas holiday is observed at many of the Pueblos. Amy will highlight our small, yet charming collection of Pueblo-made nativity sets. Many of us are familiar with the Pueblo Storyteller figures, now take a look at the mastery of Pueblo potters who create the adored figures and animals commemorated during the holiday season.
