IPCC's Family Story Time
(For Children Ages Pre-K to Grade 2)
Saturday, September 9 & 23
10-11:00AM
IPCC Museum in the Children's Reading Area by the Joe Sando Display
IPCC's Family Story Time focuses on themes that align with Pueblo core values, including the importance of family, respect, storytelling and harmony with nature. These events will utilize picture books (including those by Indigenous authors), along with supplemental books, songs, poems and simple crafts. Sponsored by the IPCC Volunteer Program.

Artist Panel & Lecture:
Birds and Feathers Exhibit
Saturday, September 9 | 1-2:30PM
IPCC, Chaco II
IPCC is proud to present this artist panel and lecture about the beauty and importance of birds in our Pueblo communities. The artists: David Naranjo (Santa Clara), LaDonna Victoriano (Acoma), Maggie, and Nikki, will be on hand to discuss their designs and inspiration, as well as what birds symbolize in Pueblo culture. Free for IPCC members, or with museum admission.

Journeys and Pathways:
Contemporary Pueblo Women in Leadership, Service, and the Arts Oral History Project
Saturday, September 16 | 2-4PM
Chaco I & II
Join us for an encore screening of the hour-long documentary, Journeys and Pathways: Contemporary Pueblo Women in Leadership, Service, and the Arts Oral History Project. This documentary features interviews with twenty women from thirteen pueblos. Principal videographer, Dr. Beverly Singer (Tewa/Santa Clara Pueblo), created a video narrative about how each Pueblo woman's family shaped her childhood and educational path, and how connection to home and culture provided strength through disappointments and difficulties. Some of the interview subjects will be with us to talk about the process and the importance of this documentary as a resource for young Pueblo women. Light refreshments will be served.

IPCC's 2023 Gala Benefitting the Indian Pueblo Entrepreneur Complex
Saturday, September 23 | 6-9:00PM
(Doors open at 5:30PM)
IPCC Courtyard
IPCC's Gala will offer guests an unforgettable, multi-course contemporary Indigenous dinner showcasing the creative culinary artistry of our acclaimed Indian Pueblo Kitchen staff. This one-of-a-kind event will take place under the stars in IPCC's beautiful, mural-lined courtyard and will feature silent and live auctions, Native American flute music and cultural dance performances. Renowned cartoonist and artist Ricardo Caté of Santo Domingo Pueblo will also be part of the evening's festivities, sharing his wry humor about the Native American experience.

By becoming a sponsor of the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center's 2023 Gala, you'll help fund The IPCC Entrepreneur Complex, which is scheduled to open during the summer of 2024. The Complex will be a multi-faceted, 7500 square foot community space that will support Native, and non-Native, entrepreneurs in the food and agricultural industries. It will build off hundreds of years of Pueblo entrepreneurial experience, fostering an authentic environment that champions each individual's hopes and dreams—all while fueling economic independence and sustainability. It all starts here...with your support.

Join us for this special night in which our community will come together to support a worthy cause.

Individual Ticket: $150
Table of 8: $1200
