Veterans Day Commemoration
Saturday, November 11
11:00AM - 1:30PM
IPCC Courtyard
Join the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center as we honor those who have served our country. Our event will include speakers and the national anthem performed by Tara Lavelle, as well as a cultural dance by the Pueblo Dance Group (Laguna, Acoma, Zuni, & Hopi) and over 30 Native artisans selling their beautiful, hand-crafted artwork in the IPCC Courtyard.

Free for veterans and members or with museum admission.

Colors That Speak Words/Phase II
Opening Reception
November 12 | 1-2:30PM
Artists Circle Gallery
The new installment of ‘Colors That Speak Words’ is a reflection on seasons of harvest by Artists Mallory Quetawki (Zuni) and Brythe Mariano (Dine). The exhibit is about a time of coming together as a community, harvesting what we know in culture and knowledge and transitioning to a quiet time and inner personal reflection. This reflects the support of families and community, sharing the bounty with cultural ceremonies that honor transition. Free for members or with museum admission.

IPCC’s Family Story Time
November 16 & 25 | 1-2PM
Children’s Area of Museum In honor of Veterans Day on Saturday, November 11, our topic is “Service to Others”, and the book title will be Chester Nez and the Unbreakable Code: A Navajo Code Talker’s Story. Vietnam veteran and Artist Gary Keene (Acoma, Dine) will be our guest storyteller. Like the veterans, each child will get a complimentary Pueblo cookie from the Indian Pueblo Kitchen after Story Time has ended.

On Saturday, November 25 – Thanksgiving weekend—we’re theme is “Family”, and the book titles will be Fry Bread. A Native American Family
Story and Forever Cousins. After Story Time has ended, each child will get fry bread from the Indian Pueblo Kitchen, compliments of the IPCC Volunteer Program.

Free admission for children and an adult family member.
